

Non-disclosure

We will not sell, give out nor make accessible any information given to us that was not made public (i.e. Any information you post on our Facebook). You agree by contacting us, using our services or website to agree to our terms laid out in our terms and conditions and privacy policy. We will collect your name and contact information if applicable including but not limited to your legal full name, adresse or number. This will only be used to contact you by volunteers or directors. You can opt out of emails by contacting the company through the email. We may keep your information up to a minimum of 3 months or up to 3 years for our records. You are also agreeing to release into our custody any information in the forms you fill out. You are also agreeing to the terms laid out for those specific forms as well as the terms of our term of use and our privacy in addition to your respective laws and the term and policies of the medium(s) you use to interact with us (i.e. Facebook, twitter, Google, weebly etc).